The Forged Black range was developed to replicate the finish of traditional iron forged hardware with the benefits of state-of-the-art manufacturing.

Our forged black range is as tough and durable as it looks, combining strength and beauty in one perfectly matching hardware range.

FORGED BLACK

The Hardex Pewter range was developed to replicate the finish of traditional iron forged hardware with the benefits of state-of-the-art manufacturing. Modern manufacturing methods ensure a repeatable finish to give the look of aged pewter and creating that unique difference needed to set a home aside from its peers.
